

CAPITAL ECONOMICS

INDEPENDENT ANALYSIS , FORECASTS AND CONSULTANCY

Welcome to CE Advance

Welcome to CE Advance

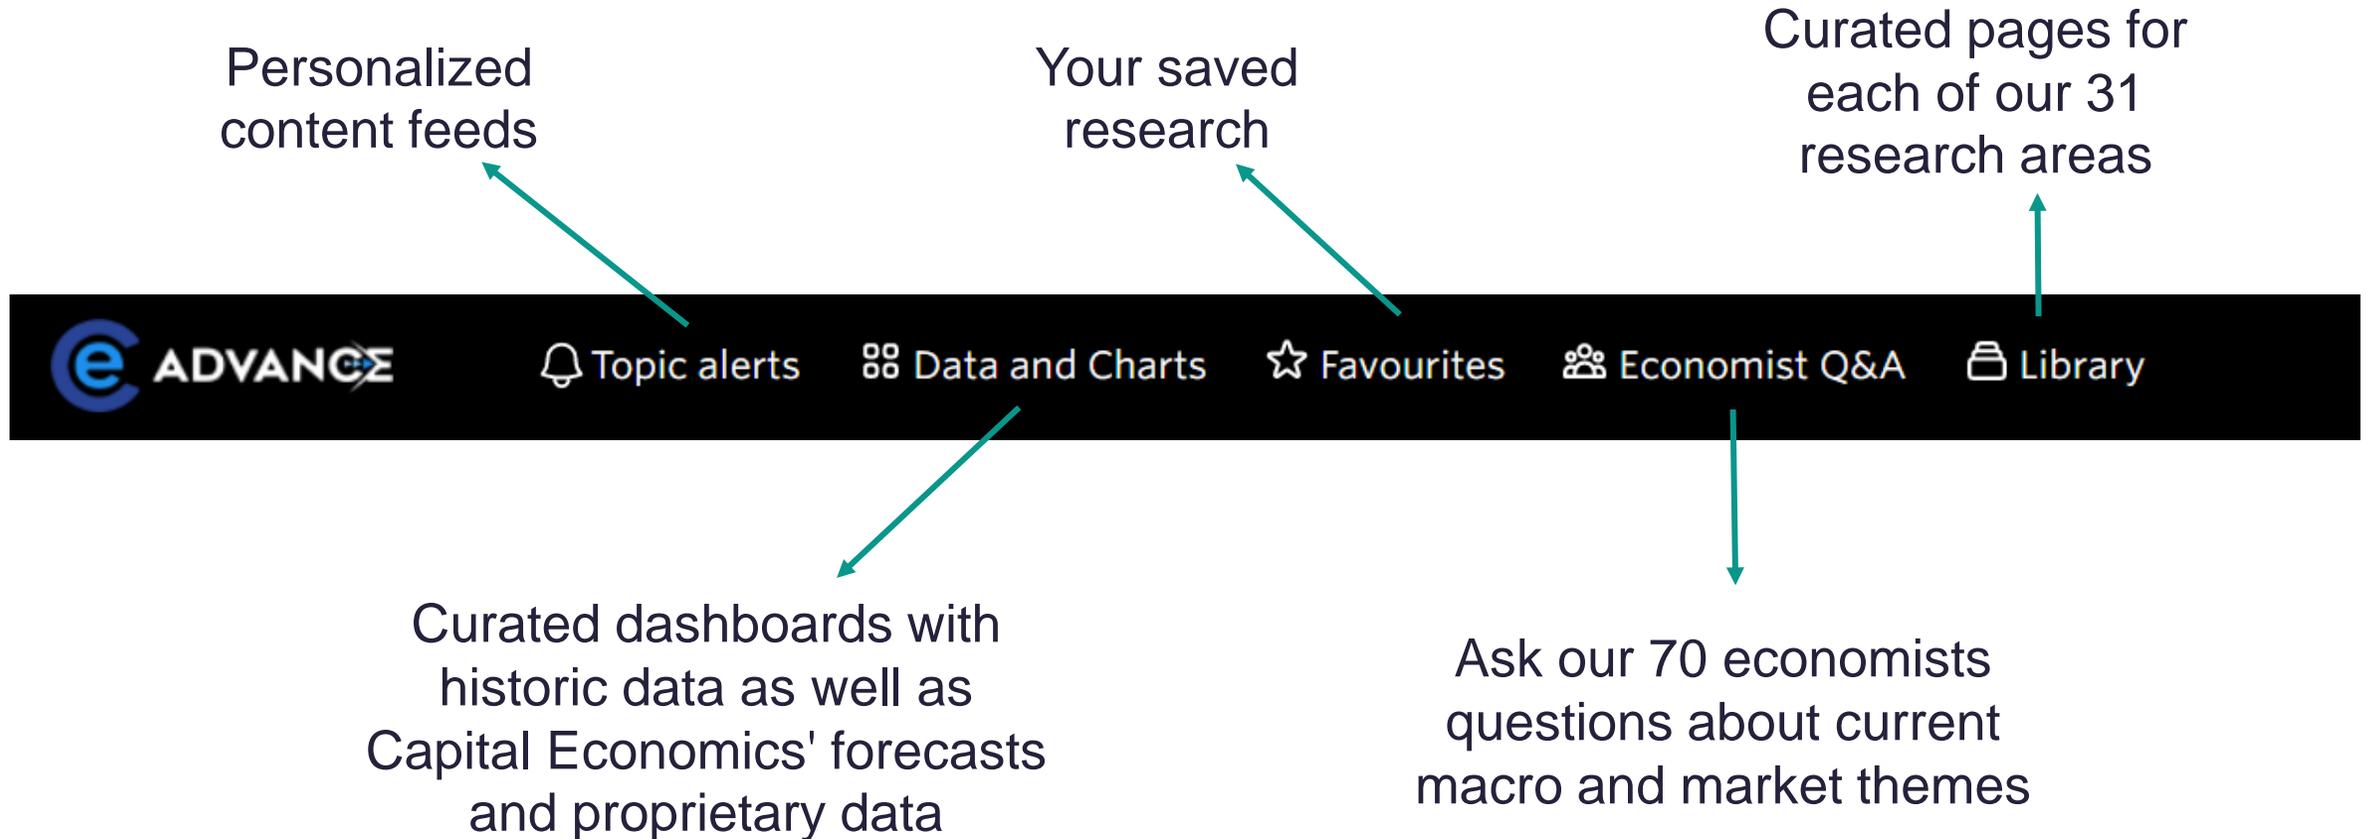

Our premium platform, CE Advance, delivers a comprehensive economic research solution personalized to your needs.

Clients will have access to customizable research feeds, data & charting insights, access to our world-class team of 70+ economists and other features designed to deliver the high-quality economic insight you need.

About us

Capital Economics is a leading provider of independent economic research. Our team of 70+ economists produces award-winning research, ranging from timely insights on incoming data to thoughtful analysis of big picture thematic issues, for over 100 economies.

Navigation overview

Creating a topic alert

The screenshot shows the ADVANCE website interface. The top navigation bar includes the ADVANCE logo, Topic alerts, Data and Charts, Favourites, Economist Q&A, and Library. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Recommended for me: The latest content recommended by Capital Economics.
- My topic alerts: A section where users can manage their alerts. It contains the text: "You have not created any topic alerts yet, please click the 'Add' button below to get started." Below this text is a dark blue button with a white plus sign and the text "+ Create new topic alert". This button is circled in red, and a red arrow points from it towards the text below.
- Drop-Ins: A dark blue banner for a "Property markets in 2023" event with a "Register Now" button.
- Charts and Images: Two line charts showing economic data (Shanghai, National, etc.) and two world map images.

Click the 'Create new topic' alert button on the Topic alerts page

Creating a topic alert

Create topic alert

Topic name *

1

Summary

Keywords:

Regions:

Topics:

Publication Types:

Keywords

2

Regions

- > Asia-Pacific
- > Europe
- > Africa
- > North America
- > Latin America
- > Middle East
- Emerging Asia
- Emerging Markets
- G10
- Global
- Pan-EM
- Sub-Saharan Africa

Topics

- > Commodities
- > Markets
- > Real Estate
- GDP and Activity
- Monetary Policy & Central Banks
- Banks, Money and Credit
- Business Investment
- Climate
- Consumer Spending
- Debt
- Demographics
- Fiscal Policy
- Household Savings
- Inflation
- International Trade & Balance of Payments

Publication Type

- Chartbook
- Daily
- Data Response
- Employment Report Preview
- Focus
- Monitor
- Outlook
- Rapid Response
- Updates
- Valuation
- Watch
- Weekly
- Wrap

Key Issues

- Europe's Energy Crisis
- Global Housing Boom to Bust
- The Fracturing of the Global Economy
- Turkey's Next Crisis?

3

Save topic

1 - Give your topic alert a name

2 – Select any keywords and click tags to refine your topic alert – if there is an arrow next to a tag you can click it to see it's subtags

3 - Click the Save topic button to create the topic alert

The criteria of your topic alert can be changed at anytime and you can create multiple topic alerts

Creating a topic alert

The screenshot shows the Capital Economics website interface. At the top is a navigation bar with the 'e ADVANCE' logo and links for 'Topic alerts', 'Data and Charts', 'Favourites', 'Economist Q&A', and 'Library'. A search icon and a user profile icon are also present.

On the left sidebar, there are three sections: 'Recommended for me.', 'My topic alerts', and 'Popular content across Capital Economics.'. The 'My topic alerts' section shows 'China' with '28 new' items and a '+ Create new topic alert' button.

The main content area is titled 'China' and shows 'Latest content: 13th January 2023'. A green button says 'See all content in this topic alert >>'. Below this is a 'New content' section with two charts. The first chart is 'CHINA ECONOMICS WEEKLY' showing a line graph of an index from 2012 to 2023. The second chart is 'GLOBAL MARKETS UPDATE' showing a line graph of a 10-year average yield from 2013 to 2023.

A dropdown menu is open over the 'New content' section, showing options: 'No alerts', 'Realtime Alerts', 'Daily Summary', 'Weekly Summary', and 'Monthly Summary'. A green circle highlights this menu, and a green arrow points from it to the text on the right.

Select the frequency you wish to receive topic alert email notifications

Browse our Curated Dashboards

Our teams have prepared a collection of specially curated dashboards to get you started

The screenshot displays the ADVANCE dashboard interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the ADVANCE logo, a search icon, and links for Topic alerts, Data and Charts, Favourites, Economist Q&A, and Library. Below the navigation bar, the main content area is divided into several sections:

- Data and Charts: A section titled "Curated Dashboards" with the subtitle "CE Advance dashboards are specially curated by our team of economists to help deepen your understanding of key macro and market themes". It features four dashboard cards:
 - China Reopens: High-frequency indicators showing the rebound in activity following China's reopening. Latest content 4 days ago. Includes a chart titled "Consumers are returning to the streets" showing subway passengers in 23 cities in China (% of 2019, 7d avg.) and a chart titled "Disruption to shipping was short-lived" showing capacity of ships at Chinese ports (% of 2019, 30d avg.).
 - UK Monthly GDP Monitor: Tracking the evolution of UK monthly GDP and our forecasts. Includes a chart titled "GDP is back below pre-pandemic levels".
 - The Fracturing of the Global Economy: An interactive guide to the fracturing of the global economy into China- and US-aligned blocs. Includes a world map showing regional groupings.
 - US Inside Inflation: Tracking the evolution of US CPI inflation and our forecasts. Includes a chart titled "Quantity of new housing starts".
- My dashboards: A section titled "EM Inflation" with 2 items and a "Create New Dashboard" button.
- My organisation's dashboards: A section titled "No dashboards available." with an "Add More Dashboards" button.

Ask an Economist a question

Click the Ask a question button on the Economist Q&A page

The screenshot shows the 'Economist Q&A' section of the ADVANCE website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'ADVANCE' logo and links for 'Topic alerts', 'Data and Charts', 'Favourites', 'Economist Q&A', and 'Library'. Below the navigation, the 'Ask a question' button is highlighted with a green circle. The main content area displays a list of questions, including one about labour markets and another about Black Friday. To the right, there are 'Q&A Search Tools' with a search bar and filters for 'Asked By' (My Organisation, Me) and 'Region' (Europe, UK, etc.).

The screenshot shows the 'Ask an economist' form. It includes a 'Question' text area, a 'Private?' checkbox (circled in green), and an 'Ask' button (circled in green). The form also contains a 'Cancel' button and a disclaimer: 'Your question and the economist's answer will be visible to all Capital Economics "Advance" customers. Your name and organisation will not be visible. You will receive an email notification when the question has been answered. This will prevent your question from appearing in the public listing.'

If you want your question to be private to your organization tick the private checkbox (all public questions will be anonymous no matter what)

Enter your question and click the Ask button

Additional Features

Popular content across Capital Economics.

China does pose a global inflation risk - but not for the reasons most think

15 hours ago

The World in 2023

1 month ago

Consumer Prices (Dec.)

4 days ago

Upgrade to 2023 China forecast and its implications

4 days ago

Recession still more likely than soft landing

1 week ago

View all popular content

Key Issues

Turkey's Next Crisis?

Global Housing Boom to Bust

The Fracturing of the Global Economy

Europe's Energy Crisis

The Rebirth of Inflation

The World with Higher Interest Rates

Russia-Ukraine: The Economic and Market Consequences

In the website sidebars, you can find a list of popular content across our client base (as recommended by our economists), and research collections on key, topical and long-term issues.

CAPITAL ECONOMICS

Resources

Roundup of the latest analysis and forecasts across major global central banks

A list of our upcoming and past drop-ins and webinar events. All past events include shareable recordings

An overview of our consultancy offering

Resources
Forecast Hub
Central Bank Hub
Capital Calls
Events and Webinars
Podcasts
Consultancy

An overview of forecasts and key views across each of our research areas

Our highest conviction macro calls and their market implications

Links to our weekly podcast featuring Neil Shearing, our Chief Economist, and regular appearances from our senior economist team

Key contacts

Send an email to your Account Manager or Support@capitaleconomics.com with any additional questions.

CAPITAL ECONOMICS